No Logo

June 2025 – August 2026

Product and Growth (Employee #2)

New York, NY

- No Logo (YC, Floodgate) is a tech-enabled product sourcing and development company. Clients bring a product idea and No Logo handles factory sourcing, sampling, mass production, QC, and freight through to finished inventory
- Joined as employee #2 at a $100K revenue run rate and helped scale to an $8M run rate in 15 months
- Built the growth function from zero, beginning with 50 cold outreach emails a day, then hiring and managing a team across creative, paid media, and partner outreach, signing brands with 10M+ combined followers
- Helped scale China operations from two part-time employees to a full-time 20-person office in Shenzhen, standardizing processes across sampling, production, and QC
- Built a custom CRM that automated creator sourcing and first-touch outreach, crawling target creators' related-account networks, watching their recent videos, and drafting tailored proposals for products No Logo could manufacture
- Defined No Logo's brand voice and social presence from scratch and hired its Creative Director, launching the YouTube channel whose first long-form video passed 150K views in two weeks
- Drove product strategy for the software that runs No Logo's operations across factory quoting, sampling, production tracking, and fulfillment
